About the Event

The 2025 World Rowing Championships take place in Shanghai, China from September 21 to 28. This year's World Championships mark the first since the 2024 Paris Olympics

This regatta also marks the return of three Paris 2024 Olympians Nathan Timoney who renews his partnership with Ross Corrigan in the Men's Pair following the 2024 Olympics. Tokyo Olympic bronze medallist Emily Hegarty and double Olympian Aoife Casey mark their return to international racing following the Paris Olympics.

Rowing Ireland will be represented by 24 athletes competing across 12 boat classes. Among them is Emma Waters, who will make her Senior International debut in the Women's Four.

PR2 rowers compete using functional movement of their arms and trunk. In 2023, Katie O'Brien and Steven McGowan placed 5th in the PR2 Mix2x at the World Championships, securing a place for the Paris 2024 Paralympic Games. At the Games, Tiarnán partnered with Katie O'Brien in the PR2 Mix2x, where they achieved a top-ten finish.

Tiarnán O'Donnell

- Age: 27
- Club: Lee Rowing Club
- Hometown: Limerick
- Position: Stroke

A relative newcomer to rowing, Tiarnán has already shown immense potential, transitioning from being one of Ireland's top wheelchair basketball players to rowing. Tiarnán competed at the 2024 Paris Paralympics in the PR2 Mixed Double Sculls alongside Katie O'Brien. The double marked Ireland's return to Paralympic rowing since London 2012. He also won silver at the 2024 World Rowing Cup II and III in the PR2 single sculls. In 2025, Tiarnán won a gold medal at the World Cup I in Varese. This marked Tiarnán's first gold medal on the international circuit, just one year after making his international debut.

Sadhbh Ní Laoighre

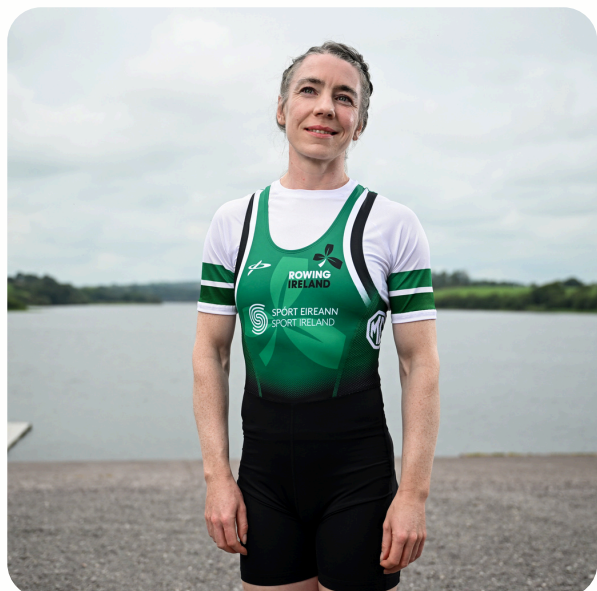

- Age: 19
- Club: Bantry Rowing Club
- Hometown: Bantry, Cork
- Position: Bow

Sadhbh started her para rowing journey in 2024 . In that same year, Sadhbh took home two golds from the 2024 Home International Regatta in both the 2000 metre race and 500 metre sprint race. She was nominated in the rowability category at the 2024 Rowing Ireland awards. At the 2025 World Cup II Sadhbh finished third in the A Final of the PR3 Mix2x. Shanghai marks Sadhbh's first World Championships.

The Irish Women's Double Scull secured a top-10 finish at the 2024 Olympic Games, a remarkable result for a young crew. Zoe Hyde returns to the boat, joined by Mags Cremen, who made her debut in the heavyweight category at the 2025 European Championships.

Mags Cremen

- Age: 26
- Club: UCC Rowing Club
- Hometown: Rochestown, Cork
- Boat Position: Stroke

Mags began rowing in 2014 with Lee Rowing Club and now rows with UCC, where she is studying Sports Studies and Physical Education with Irish. She was an A-finalist at the 2024 Olympic Games in the LW2x and also won silver at the 2024 European Championships in the LW1x. In 2022, she claimed a bronze medal at the World Championships. Shanghai 2025 marks her first World Championships competing in the heavyweight category.

Zoe Hyde

- Age: 28
- Club: Tralee Rowing Club
- Hometown: Killorglin, Kerry
- Boat Position: Bow

In 2022, Zoe Hyde won a bronze medal at the World Rowing Championships and secured a silver medal at World Cup II in the Women's Double Sculls (W2x). In 2023, Zoe finished fourth in the W2x at the World Championships, qualifying the boat for the 2024 Olympic Games. She made her Olympic debut in Paris 2024, achieving a top-10 finish. Off the water, Zoe is a brand ambassador for Deloitte, where she collaborates with the Early Careers team to strengthen the firm's partnerships with the Olympic Federation of Ireland, Paralympics Ireland, and university talent programmes.

Ireland are the Olympic bronze medallists in the Men's Double Sculls, with Philip Doyle and Daire Lynch making history as the first Irish crew to medal in men's heavyweight rowing at the Games. For the 2025 World Championships, Philip Doyle returns to the M2x alongside double Olympic champion Fintan McCarthy. Earlier in 2025, Fintan claimed bronze at both the European Championships and World Cup II in the M2x with Konan Pazziaia.

Fintan McCarthy

- Age: 28
- Club: Skibbereen Rowing Club
- Hometown: Skibbereen, Cork
- Position: Stroke

Fintan made history at the 2020/2021 Olympic Games in Tokyo when he and Paul O'Donovan won Ireland's first ever rowing gold medal winning the Lightweight Men's Double Sculls. The duo then went on to win gold at the 2024 Paris Olympics in the LM2x, being the first Irish duo to win back to back gold medals at the Olympics. Fintan made his heavyweight debut this year at the European Championships where he won a bronze medal in the Men's Double Scull.

Philip Doyle

- Age: 32
- Club: Belfast Boat Club
- Hometown: Banbridge, Down
- Position: Bow

Having started rowing as a novice with Queen's in 2014, Doyle quickly moved up the ranks and competed in the 2020/2021 Tokyo Olympic Games in the M2x with Ronan Byrne. Philip made history alongside Daire Lynch after winning a bronze medal in the M2x at the Paris Olympics. Doyle balances rowing alongside a medical career.

Reserves

At the 2025 World Championships, the heavyweight women's squad will include two reserves: Alison Bergin and Claire Feerick. They will provide cover for any crew member in the event of injury or illness during the regatta. They are an important part of the crew's campaign, ensuring Ireland has the depth and strength to compete at the highest level. Both will also have the opportunity to race in Shanghai, showcasing their talent on the world stage.

Alison Bergin

- Age: 23
- Club: Fermoy Rowing Club
- Hometown: Kildinan, Cork

At just 20 Alison set a U23 world record in the single scull at the 2022 U23 World Championships where she won a bronze medal. In 2023 she bettered that result claiming a silver medal at the U23 World Championships. Bergin placed 4th in the 2023 World Championships in the W2x qualifying the boat for the 2024 Olympics, where she had a top ten finish alongside Zoe Hyde.

Claire Feerick
